CONGRESSMAN FAVORS PARCEL POST

Not a New Decision as He Has Previously Stated His Position-Reply to a Trade Paper's Inquiry by Third District Representative.

Frevious to the last election Congressman Edwin W. Higgins defined his position in regard to parcels post and stated that he was in favor of it. The congressman has not changed his views upon that matter, but in common with other congressmen he has received a letter from The Interstate Grocer, a trade journal of St. Louis, asking for an expression from him as to how he will vote on such legislation.

St. Louis, March 21, 1912. Dear Sir: The time is rapidly approaching when congress will be called proaching when congress will be called upon to vote on the general parcels post rider to the postoffice appropriation bill. As you probably know, the retail merchants of the country are obvosed to parcels post while the mail order catalogue houses are in favor of it. There is no need to take up your time with reasons why parcels post should or should not come into being. You have your own convictions being. You have your own convictions in the matter. What we want is to have an expression from you as to whether you will or will not vote for parcels post.

ALL FACTIONS AGREED ON SENATOR BRANDEGEE

Democratic Leader Suggested Connecticut Senator's Name to Preside Over Body.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, March 23.—When the senate meets Monday, Senator Brandegee will occupy the chair of the vice president. Just before the adjournment of that body last night, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, that the secretary wait upon the president of the United States and inform him that the senate has elected Frank B, Brandegee, a senator from the state of Connecticut, president of the senate pro tempore, to hold and the senate pro tempore, to hold and execute that office in the absence of the vice president on Monday and Tuesday, March 25 and 26, 1912.

A similar resolution addressed to a house of representatives was also the house of representatives was also adopted. Since the death of Senator Frye of Maine the senate has been unable to agree on a permanent president pro tempore. Senator Callinger was nominated by the regular republicans, Senator Bacon by the democrats and Senator Clapp by the insurgent republicans. No one has been able to secure a majority of the votes. Yesterday when it was learned that Brandegee, It has been customary to name either Senator Gallinger, republican, or Senator Bacon, democrat, as president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice president. They are among the oldest senators in the upper house of congress and the position should go by right, it was thought, to the old members. But Senator Brandegee has been frequently called to the presidenting officer's chair by Vice Presidenting of the Smyrna Turkey, Spoke at the Pirst Congregational church Sunday evening, helding the close attention of the large number present. He told of the condition of things years ago, and of the external and internal evidences of the gospel now. In the former times, he said, the religion of Christ suffered because of the gospel now. PASSION SUNDAY.

Statues at St. Patrick's Church Veiled -Sermon by Rev. Hugh Treanor-Very Rev. J. A. Heenan to Preach Palm Sunday Evening.

Yesterday, Passion Sunday, penitential purple velled the statues and crucifix in St. Patrick's church, to remain cifix in St. Patrick's church, to remain in place until the end of Holy Week, that all thoughts may be concentrated on the sufferings of Christ. At the 10.30 high mass the Rev. Hugh Treanor preached from the gospel for the Sunday, John viii, 66-59, his text the concluding sentence, "And Jesus hid himself for them." His theme was the awe-inspiring thought that Christ should hide himself from those who are carelessly of wilfully blind to the light of divine revelation, or who permit themselves to remain in the habit of sin, without making an effort to repent and reform.
